Selected for Abduction: Gray Barker's 1981 UFO Annual Gray Barker

New Saucerian presents one of the rarest of all Gray Barker titles, "Selected For Abduction." Here Barker covers the best UFO sightings from 1981, including gripping "abductions" and "MIB attacks." In traversing this nicely illustrated, large-format artifact, one senses Barker was perhaps the first serious UFO publisher to give credence to "alien abduction." Following his death soon after the publication of this book, several high-profile abductees and hypnosis-based researchers filled the vacuum. But none could really match Barker's colorful and entertaining style. These stories still hold their own today. An illuminating addition to the library of any serious saucer researcher.
