Two cents worth ...thoughts of an old Georgia Boy Charlie A Farrar

Two Cents Worth is an extremely unique collection of those "good ole times" that will force your mind to travel back in time seeking some of your on! A wonderful collection to add to the coffee table and for conversation during family gatherings, parties, etc! this collection of newspaper articles is like having a conversation with Charlie. Each article is unigue and there is a lot of southern style humor and good old country commentary about a wide range of subjects in each article. The best ones deal with his boyhood in a small town down in Georgia. There are good ones about his dog Four and the adventures at Day Lake also. This book is worth reading.
