PLEASURE CRAFT is a kind, funny, satisfying novel about a 50-something man who is confronted by the life he had believed was both successful and secure. Much of the action takes place in a San Rafael, California boatyard, among a community revealing itself to be a convincing metaphor for both the world in microcosm and life's oft unexpected corners. The evolution of the main character, Ryan Waters, carries you along, leading to unexpected friendships and more in the wake of his shattered life. PLEASURE CRAFT is a personality-driven tale played out through a remarkable Zen-like journey.
