Carolina Journeys: Exploring the Trails of the Carolinas, Both Real and Imagined Tom Fowler

There are plenty of publications that provide information about the well-known tourist destinations in the Carolinas. Read them at your peril. They will co-opt your sovereignty and reduce you to a sightseer. Carolina Journeys: Exploring the trails of the Carolinas—both real and imagined, on the other hand, tells stories of poorly known sites of interest in the Carolinas. Tom Fowler, the author of Carolina Journeys, realizes that providing information about these sites is the first step in co-opting your sovereignty and reducing you to a sightseer--so his goal is to avoid providing too much information or too good directions or being too knowledgeable and authoritative. He is not being lazy – it is for your own good. Carolina Journeys, therefore, leaves much to the dear reader and Carolina sojourner.
