An Independent Living Simulation

Living on Your Own helps your students experience independent living all in the safety and comfort of the classroom. They'll get acquainted with the new towns they're living in, then find jobs, learn about the public transportation system, find housing, make budgets, and pay for food and utilities.

Each easy-to-read-and-understand activity features daily lesson plans, reproducibles, and answer keys. The program occupies 12 weeks, but the pace can be modified so the activities can be conducted at an appropriate rate for your students.
