Life is good for Cate Maddison. She has a job she loves and a best friend she adores. Although it would be nice to have a man in her life, her career is her priority. At least she has her ex, Matt, who's always there when she needs him to be.

On a night out with her best friend Vanessa, they conveniently bump into Jacob and Nick. Cate's suspicious that it's a setup, knowing how Vanessa wants her settle down, but she can't deny the attraction she feels when her eyes meet Nick's. He's definitely her type, tall, dark and handsome. Cate's drawn to him, and acting on impulse they spend an amazing night together. Not one to have a one-night stand, Cate slinks away in the early morning, not thinking she will see Nick again.

Nick Halland hasn't been able to get Cate out of his head since they met. Fate seems to be working in his favour, when they cross paths once more. When Nick arrives at his new job, he discovers he'll be working very closely with Cate. The attraction between them is stronger than either of them have felt before, yet Cate is reluctant to give in to her growing feelings.

Cate has a rule. A golden rule. One that she's never broken.

Could Nick be the exception to her rule?
