Have you been single for too long? Or are you stuck in a relationship that doesn't make you happy? Do you want to be sexy but don't know how to not come off too strong? Danielle Victor's Don't Be That Bitch, helps women to not feel alone and provides advice on how to be a stronger, more confident, woman single or not. With details into her own life and past relationships, this book provides therapy. It is a roller coaster of emotions: anger, happiness, denial, sadness, acceptance, and forgiveness. Danielle provides compelling stories for situations all women go through in new or on going relationships. This book is full of humor and realness that will grip and tug at the strings of your heart. This book focuses more on understanding yourself, rather than, the man you are dating. Screw figuring out who the man you are dating is- let's focus on who you will be after reading this book. Danielle hopes this book will help any man or woman reading to gain all their lost confidence to have a healthier, sexier, more romantic future in love.
