When Rebecca Ford enters Rick Baker's Sex and Bondage bar the hairs on the back of her neck stand up. Every instinct in her body is telling her to run.

Rick sees her and assumes that she is the actress scheduled for filming that day. He gags her and runs her down to the torture chamber in the basement. Everything is caught on film.

When the real actress shows up, the mistake, which has been made, is obvious.

Can he risk letting her go? If she goes to the police and tells them what happened, he would lose his club, and his customers would lose the one place they go to where they can be themselves. However, if he keeps her as his sex slave, no one would ever find out about the mistake made that day. He would go to any length to keep the truth a secret.

Collin Burke enjoys going to the club and watching the sketches they perform there. His favorites are when Becky is in them.

When he discovers that Becky isn't at the club of her own free will, he insists that she be sold in a slave auction. New Year's Eve is set as the date for the auction.

Will Collin be able to buy her, so he can take her home to live out his favorite sketch with her?

Warning: This BDSM/ Adult Age Play book is only for ages 18 and up. It contains severe punishment and spanking scenes, which some people could find offensive.
