Lost Stars 2: Forgotten SF Classics from the Early Jean Marie Stine (Ed.)

MORE GREAT SF YOU SHOULD HAVE READ! But Probably Haven't! Available exclusively as an e-book, Lost Stars 2 features more "forgotten" masterworks of science fiction from classic "best of" anthologies, most of which have been out of print and unobtainable for a half century and longer. Contents include a woman scientist's revenge on a cruel dictator, John Taine's "The Ultimate Catalyst," a very human space opera, Raymond Z. Gallun's "Return of a Legend," a creepy but valid look at the source of creative inspiration, David Keller's "The Literary Corkscrew," the light-hearted tale of a ingenious man's ingenuity put to a stellar test, R. DeWitt Miller's "Swenson, Dispatcher," a haunting robot story, Ed Clinton's "The Small World of M-75, an eerie account of what happens when a young boy discovers his world isn't what he has been led to believe, Walter Kubiilus "The Other Side," and five others. "A must read." Forrest J Ackerman.
