TWO ROADS OF CHOICE is about Alyssa Schaeffer making the choice of either going down the road of broken pieces to join the road of the whole, or continuing down the fragmented path remaining in pieces, without facing the fears, hatred, anger, hurt, and frustration, not to mention the pain of therapy. To become whole, to be able to live a normal, peaceful, and loving life, Alyssa must face her past! To do so, she must recover her memory with the help of others, face it, deal with it, embrace what she has created to survive all these years, connect to them, love and understand them, thank them, then release them. During this process, she finds the loving parents she never had. She finds a counselor, and her team she can finally trust, and she gains the courage to fight the fight that will ultimately save her life.
