Gideon Cross marries Eva Tramell but nobody knows it yet. The world only knows that they are engaged. As the news of their engagement spread, people from Gideon's past start to come out to hurt him, and they are doing it through Eva.

Gideon wants his wife to be protected from any harm, so he hires his trusted people to make sure she does not get hurt. He had already taken care of a lot of things for Eva, from getting rid of her sex tape videos to providing her a bodyguard and a chauffeur at her beck and call.

However, no matter how hard Gideon tries to protect Eva from getting hurt, she remains vulnerable, and he can't protect her from getting hurt because of his nightmares.

Eva tries to stand by Gideon's side as he battles his own demons. She constantly prods him to let their psychologist, Dr. Petersen, help him overcome his inner conflicts.

Caught up in his sexual desires and his emotional turmoil, Gideon has a hard time facing his personal issues. His nightmares are deeply rooted in his childhood and his refusal to face his past has caused strains in his relationship with Eva.

However, their desire to make things work for them has granted them a chance to give their relationship another try.
