Tell me if you've heard this before. A Guardian, a fallen angel, a sensitive, and a human walk into a bar.....

Abigail Gentry knew her life was going to change when her mother lost her battle with cancer, but she couldn't have possibly anticipated what that change would entail.

He's been a Guardian and protector of the human realm for thousands of years, and Cillian's giving it all up for her.

She will discover her purpose on earth; he will discover the simplest of human emotions. Abigail always thought she was just an ordinary woman, but oh, how she's in for a big surprise. Everything she's ever believed will be shattered and the truth will set her on a course of good, evil, near-death experiences, demon possessions, and real love.
