Hide in Plain Sight Alan Annand

A man assumes his twin brother's identity in order to alibi his own wife who's accidentally killed his brother in an argument. But when he finds himself sharing a bed with his beautiful sister-in-law, he faces bigger challenges and harder choices. ~~~ Alex Carson is in mid-life freefall. He owes a quarter million dollars in taxes, his bipolar wife Connie is off her meds, and his dog's just died. When his crippled twin Dave refuses his request for a loan, Connie goes ballistic, knocks Dave down a flight of stairs and accidentally kills him. To avoid arrest for murder, Alex masquerades as Dave, allowing Connie to escape and establish an alibi. It's supposed to be simple but it turns surreal. Dave's wife Kristina is drop-dead gorgeous, and lying next to her at night gives Alex a libidinous fever. And now someone is trying to kill him... ~~~ Alex Carson is in mid-life freefall. He owes a quarter million in back taxes, his bipolar wife Connie keeps going off her meds, and his dog's just died. When his estranged twin brother Dave, a multi-millionaire with a disease that's reduced him to crutches, invites him for a weekend visit, Alex is so eager to escape his own reality that he accepts, even though his wife decides at the last minute to tag along. Over drinks that evening, Dave tells them he suspects his wife Kristina of having an affair. Uninterested in Dave's marital problems, Connie seeks sympathy for Alex's tax debt and asks for a loan, which Dave refuses. In a fit of anger, Connie knocks Dave down a flight of stairs and accidentally kills him. Given their motive and opportunity, Alex and Connie fear a murder charge if they inform the police, so he decides to take Dave's place long enough for her to return home and establish an alibi. In a few days, he'll engineer Dave's "death" all over again, and escape to rejoin her. Although she suspects he just wants to sleep with Dave's wife Kristina, she's forced to go along with the plan. It's supposed to be simple but it gets very complicated. Kristina is drop-dead gorgeous, and lying next to her at night gives Alex a libidinous fever. Ironically, when it also comes to light that Dave appears to have been having an affair with their hot-blooded domestic, Alex finds himself trapped in a ménage-a-trois from hell. And now someone is trying to kill him... ~~~ 82,500 words
