The Hidden Hand of Management: The Universal Field Management Theorem Dr. Terry Polen

There are so many business books. There's almost a flavor-of-the-week way to manage these days. We spend our weeks focused on business and our evenings and weekends focused on the faith and family. This doesn't work. Making God the center of your business, faith, family, and strategy is the path to your vision and mission and future. By creating a life that is consistent between what we say and what we believe, between what we do and who we are, we can create a successful life, not just a living. Albert Einstein spent much of the end of his life searching for the elusive Universal Field Theorem. We have arrived at the Universal Management Field Theorem.
