Two middle-aged adults, Lynn and Rodney, meet and fall in love. Their romance takes place aboard a ship sailing along the east coast of Asia. Lynn Abbott is a recent widow struggling to find a place for herself when she unexpectedly is on her own for the first time. Rodney Hamilton is a widower travelling to various East Asian ports to wind up some work projects before retiring. Sayud, a young idealistic room steward, is intent on finding ways to rebuild his devastated homeland. This unexpected adventure envelops these three characters, opening up a new understanding about helping others in need, and in turn, finding that they get back much more than they can ever give. Set sail on a very special and ageless romance in An Hour and a Half from Tomorrow. About the Author: Gem Baird's first book "took root" forty years ago, but began to really "sprout" three years ago, blossoming this year as a completed story.
