Knitting for Beginners: The Unbelievable Guide to Knitting with Pictures, Instructions, and Lessons! Knitting isn't just for grandmas anymore! Anyone can get in on this wildly popular hobby, so if you haven't tried it, now is the time to get started! This eBook is pretty much like having a personal knitting tutor. Between the photographs of stitches and the detailed explanations of how to properly hold the yarn and knitting needles to form those stitches, you'll be moving from your very first scarf to creating designer sweaters in no time. This eBook walks you through the supplies you will need to get started, how to make the foundational stitches, and how to read a knitting pattern. After a bit of practice, move into experimenting with some of the really interesting textures you can create with different combinations of those foundational stitches. This eBook also boosts your skills with explanations of changing color, increasing and decreasing stitches to create interesting shapes, and how to fix mistakes through a technique known as frogging.
