Best Practices for Mergers and Acquisitions in China provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on key strategies for representing and advising clients involved in mergers and acquisitions in China. Featuring partners from some of China's leading law firms, these experts guide the reader through the changing landscape of M&A and explain the factors driving these changes, including the impact of the global economic downturn and the implementation of the new Anti-Monopoly Law. From understanding the increased role of Chinese regulating agencies to navigating the new requirements for M&A clients in China, these authors discuss best practices for doing business within China's new merger control regime. These top lawyers reveal their advice on closing a successful merger or acquisition by overcoming cultural challenges, creating strategic alliances, and receiving government approval. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to success within this ever-evolving area of law.

Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is heading and the most important issues for the future. Each author has been selected based upon their experience and C-level standing within the professional community.
